

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR GLORIA MOLINA

February 7, 2006

On June 20, 2005, and September 20, 2005, the Board of Supervisors authorized the transfer of funds to the Department of Public Works (DPW) and the Community Development Commission (CDC) to assist with various capital projects in the First Supervisorial District. These projects are now ready to move forward. In order for the CDC to utilize the funds, the Board must authorize CDC to accept the funds into their budget. Additionally, the Board needs to authorize the transfer of funds to DPW for two bike path and sidewalk repair projects.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors:

1. Instruct the Chief Administrative Officer to complete and execute funding agreements with the Community Development Commission and to transfer funding for the following projects:
  - (a) $4,200,000 million for Avocado Heights Park from the Project and Facility Development Fund 10190;
  - (b) $1,700,000 for Potrero Heights Senior Center from capital project number 77434;
  - (c) $1,350,000 for Pico Rivera library from the Project and Facility Development Fund 10190;
